EGF-418, 17 Jan 54

Curt Bley, a staunch supporter of MISEVE. This organization which supports EDC and other European schemes is considered deviationist by most SPD leaders. On 17 Jan 54 the SPD leadership effected a compromise with some of the prominent leaders of the MISEVE. (Comment: Membership in MISEVE is not considered grounds for expulsion from the party, but the party does not look favorably upon its existence)

EGF-373, Dec 1953

At December meeting of the Executive Committee of SPD Alliance took a stronger stand on the conference of MISEVE (Nov. 53 at Frankfurt). He held that the Party members who appeared publicly at that meeting had made an overt attempt to influence German public opinion in general and specifically German Socialists to accept policies in opposition to those of the SPD. He noted that Wilhelm Kaisen, Mayor of Bremen was being used as front man for a group of disident Party members such as Hermann Brill and Dr. Curt Bley.

EGF-361, 15 Nov 53

Report on MISEVE annual conference on 14/15 Nov 53 in Frankfurt.
Curt Bley, Hamburg strongly was the principal German speaker.

His remarks were principally a contradiction of SPD policy in that he held that a European solution for German rearmament was the only feasible and logical one.
